Special (sensitive) categories of personal data

Types of special category personal data	Why we collect it
Information about your physical or mental health or condition.	Certain products and services that you request may require this information. Specifically, in order for us to advise you on and to submit applications for health or life insurance products and services, we will need to collect information relating to your physical and mental health in order to obtain accurate quotes and to advise on the suitability of products (as insurance premiums and eligibility for products will in part depend on your physical and mental health). We will usually collect this information in the course of meetings with you, on specific questionnaires or in the process of completing an application form for such products and services.
Information about your sex life or sexual orientation.	Some providers may ask for this information in the course of your application for their products or services. We will never ask for this information for our own purposes.
Information about your racial or ethnic origin	Some providers may ask for this information in the course of your application for their products or services. We will never ask for this information for our own purposes.

When we record communications

We, and persons acting on our behalf, may record and/or monitor communications (including telephone conversations over landlines and mobile phones, emails, instant messaging, chat rooms, fax and other electronic communications) between our staff and you.

We record these communications between us in order to comply with our legal and regulatory requirements - as a regulated financial adviser, the law requires us to record these communications.
